61st Annual VNSA Used Book Sale Feb. 11th & 12th, 2017 'The Next Chapter'

Book lovers of all descriptions will return once again this February to the Southwest's largest used book sale. The VNSA Used Book Sale will be held on February 11th and 12th at the Arizona State Fairgrounds. More than a half million gently used books, DVDs, CDs, computer games and puzzles will be available at greatly reduced prices. Books on many topics, spanning a total of 27 categories, are available.

Joyce Nolan, VNSA President, says: "Our theme: 'The Next Chapter' takes us past our six decades of sales into the future. We are excited to continue to bring the opportunity to the community for a great value, used books that can be enjoyed by everyone. And, at the same time, support our two very important charities."

Throughout the year VNSA members spend thousands of hours collecting; sorting, and cataloguing donated books for the sale. "Our volunteers take pride in organizing this once a year event and we are honored to help support our charities." Nolan adds. The VNSA is staffed entirely by volunteers.

Proceeds from the sale stay local, benefitting the Literacy Volunteers of Maricopa County, a non-profit dedicated to teaching adults how to read, write, and speak English and prepare for the GED. The book sale also benefits the Arizona Friends of Foster Children Foundation. The AFFCF promotes the self-esteem and enriches the lives of children in foster care by funding activities, education and other needs.

The VNSA has donated more than $8 million to Valley non-profits by through the years.

Books start at only $1 with everything half-price on Sunday except items in the rare and unusual category. Sale hours on Saturday are from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., with Sunday hours from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The sale is located in the Fairgrounds Exhibit Hall at 17th Avenue and West McDowell Road in Phoenix.

There is free admission to the sale, but the Fairgrounds charges to park. For more information, call 602-265-6805 or visit www.vnsabooksale.org.
