62nd Annual VNSA Used Book Sale Feb. 10th & 11th, 2018 'The Adventure Continues'

Book lovers young and old return once again this February to the Southwest's largest used book sale. The VNSA Used Book Sale is February 10th and 11th at the Arizona State Fairgrounds. More than a half million gently used books and other media is available at greatly reduced prices. You'll find books of every topic sorted into 29 categories.

Heather Rayner, VNSA President, says: "VNSA is excited to continue bringing great value to the community through our 62nd Used book Sale. You'll find books, DVDs, CDs, computer games and puzzles available at greatly reduced prices."

VNSA is staffed entirely by volunteers. Throughout the year members spend thousands of hours collecting, sorting, and cataloguing donated books for the sale.

Proceeds from the sale stay local, benefitting the Literacy Volunteers of Maricopa County, a non-profit dedicated to teaching adults how to read, write, and speak English and prepare for the GED. The book sale also benefits the Arizona Friends of Foster Children Foundation. The AFFCF promotes the self-esteem and enriches the lives of children in foster care by funding activities, education and other needs.

"Our members work hard each year to bring this sale to the community on behalf of our charities. Our charities do an incredible service to the community and we are honored to support their efforts," Rayner adds.

VNSA has donated more than $8 million to Valley non-profits through the years.

Books start at only $1, with like new paperback volumes at $2, and with everything half-price on Sunday except items in the rare and unusual category. Sale hours on Saturday are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday hours from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The sale is located in the Fairgrounds Exhibit Hall at 17th Avenue and West McDowell Road in Phoenix.

There is free admission to the sale, but the Fairgrounds charges to park. For more information, call 602-265-6805 or visit www.vnsabooksale.org.
