

Press Release

64th Annual VNSA Used Book Sale Feb. 8th & 9th, 2020 'A Galaxy of Good Reads'

The annual VNSA Used Book sale returns next weekend to AG Building at the Arizona State Fairgrounds at 17th Ave. and McDowell. Book lovers young and old can find more than half a million gently used books and other media at the Southwest's largest used book sale. Come shop February 8th and 9th. More than a half million gently used books and other media are available at greatly reduced prices. You'll find books of every topic sorted into 29 categories.

VNSA is staffed entirely by volunteers. Throughout the year members spend thousands of hours collecting, sorting, and cataloguing donated books for the sale.

Proceeds from the sale stay local, benefitting the Literacy Volunteers of Maricopa County, a non-profit dedicated to teaching adults how to read, write, and speak English and prepare for the GED. The book sale also benefits the Arizona Friends of Foster Children Foundation. The AFFCF promotes the self-esteem and enriches the lives of children in foster care by funding activities, education and other needs.

VNSA has donated more than $9 million to Valley non-profits through the years.

Books start at only $1, with like new paperback volumes at $2, and with everything half-price on Sunday except items in the rare and unusual category. Sale hours on Saturday are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday hours from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The sale is located in the Fairgrounds Ag Building at 17th Avenue and West McDowell Road in Phoenix.

There is free admission to the sale, but the Fairgrounds charges to park. For more information, call 602-265-6805 or visit www.vnsabooksale.org.

VNSA - Volunteer Nonprofit Service Association, Inc.

Not for Publication:

Need more information?

Contact Jennifer Doan at 602-571-7941 or publicity@vnsabooksale.org